VALLEY VIEW UNIVERSITY

FACULTY OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

GENERAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

FIRST SEMESTER 2025/2026

MID SEMESTER EXAMINATION

RELB 385
INTRODUCTION TO BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS OF ETHICS

STUDENT ID: _____

LECTURER: SOLOMON APPIAH

DURATION: 1.1/2 HOURS TOTAL MARKS: 40

READ ALL INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

SECTION A (10 MARKS)

Answer All Questions in this Section

Choose from the options lettered A-D the letter that most suitably answers the question.
CIRCLE THE LETTER OF YOUR OPTION WITH BLUE INK

1. The formalization of ethics as a field of academic study may be credited to…
   A. The Hammurabis
   B. The Manus
   C. The Greeks
   D. The Israelites

2. Viewed from its normative perspective, morality can only be said to be…
   A. Applied but not Prescriptive
   B. Implied but not Descriptive
   C. Applied and Described
   D. Implied and Prescribed

3. The main distinction between ethics and morality is that…
   A. The former is functional and the latter is ornamental
   B. The former is relative and the latter is absolute
   C. The former outlines the principles and the latter applies the principles
   D. The former relates to groups and institutions but the latter relates to the individual

4. The one element in the Wesleyan Quadrilateral that appeals to humanity's intuitive rationality is…
   A. Scripture
   B. Reason
   C. Tradition
   D. Experience

5. Ethics is said to be _____ because it allows for personal, communal and institutional review and adjustment.
   A. Reflective
   B. Relative
   C. Rationalistic
   D. Restorative

6. Which of the following virtues is missing in Philippians 4:8?
   A. Charity
   B. Purity
   C. Trustworthiness
   D. Accountability

7. According to Dennis P. Hollinger, the inculcation of communal spirituality and piety as opposed to the view of individualism in the internal dimension of ethical experience is primarily a
   A. Western Worldview
   B. African Perspective
   C. Secular Understanding
   D. Biblical Model

8. The life in which individuals have a sense of oughtness and obligation is referred to by Hollinger as
   A. The Ethical Life
   B. The Christian Life
   C. The Moral Life
   D. The Amoral Life

9. To the consequentialist, the ultimate criterion or standard for the determination of the ethical summom bonum is in
   A. Result
   B. Rule
   C. Action
   D. Actor

10. To be human is to be ethical: to function in humanity is to…
   A. To remain ethically antinomianist
   B. Manifest morality
   C. Assert to human evolution
   D. Generalize moral legislations

SECTION B (20 MARKS)
Write out your answers legibly in the spaces provided on the question paper.

1. In what four (4) ways can the internal dimension of personal relationship with God be nurtured for a Christian moral life, according to Dennis P. Hollinger? (4 marks)

   a. _____ c. _____

   b. _____ d. _____

2. Identify any three characteristics of normative ethics. (3 marks)

   1. _____

   2. _____

   3. _____

3. Define each of the following axioms when faced with the ethical dilemma of whether it is right to lie to save a life or not. (2 marks each)
   1. Antinomianism:_____
      _____
      _____
   2. Situationism: _____
      _____
      _____
   3. Unqualified Absolutism: _____
      _____
      _____

4. Why would you say apodictic moral legislations are absolute? Defend your answer with at least 1 Bible verse. (2 marks) _____
   _____
   _____

5. Define ethical (1 mark each)

a. Utilitarianism: _____

_____

_____

b. Egoism: _____

_____

_____

c. Altruism: _____

_____

_____

6. Identify any four (4) characteristics of Christian ethics (2 marks)

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

SECTION C (10 MARKS)
This section has two (2) questions. Answer Only ONE Question. Write your answer at the back of this paper.
Credit will be given for clarity and orderly presentation of answers

1. 1. Whereas moral voices compete in today's complex world the author of choosing the right attempts to set forth a broad framework for doing ethics with two objectives: identify and briefly discuss each of these two objectives . Highlight the methodological principles of each and state their merits and demerits. (10 marks)

2. With creationism as the basis, discuss the five (5) motivations for human moral conduct. Argue for why you affirm creationism over evolutionism. (10 marks)